Major event sponsor ExxonMobil Australia

ExxonMobil Australia is this country's oldest petroleum company, operating since 1895.

Our business covers a wide range of petroleum related activities from oil and gas exploration and production (upstream operations), to petroleum refining and supply of fuels and lubricants (downstream operations).

Our primary role – and most important contribution to society – is to safely provide reliable and affordable supplies of energy, and we are committed to doing so in a financially, environmentally and socially responsible manner. Learn more about us at www.exxonmobil.com.au.

The ExxonMobil logo, featuring the word "Exxon" in red and "Mobil" in blue, with a red and blue chevron symbol above the "x" in Exxon.

The Hon. Matthew Guy

Leader of the Opposition, Leader of the Liberal Party, Victoria

Matthew Guy was elected as the Leader of the Opposition and Leader of the Parliamentary Liberal Party in December 2014.

First elected to Parliament in November 2006, Matthew was re-elected in 2010. In the 2014 election, Matthew successfully stood for the seat of Bulleen in Melbourne's eastern suburbs.

The son of a migrant, Matthew was born in Greensborough and raised in Montmorency, where he went to Montmorency High School and then worked part-time to put himself through university. Matthew has a Bachelor of Arts in politics and history from La Trobe University and has completed post graduate studies in Ukrainian language and culture at Monash University.

Prior to becoming a Member of Parliament, Matthew had a variety of jobs including representing agricultural interests at the Victorian Farmers Federation, as well as working in the finance industry as a manager at the Australian Securities and Investment Commission. He also worked in a number of political roles including for then Premier Jeff Kennett and the former Federal Assistant Treasurer.

In December 2010 he was appointed Victorian Minister for Planning and in March 2014 he was appointed Minister for Multicultural Affairs and Citizenship. These are two issues that Matthew is particularly passionate about – building a better, stronger Victoria that creates jobs, opportunity and improves the way we live, and celebrating Victoria's vibrant, multicultural community.

Matthew is married to Renae and they have three children – Joseph, Samuel and Alex. He enjoys taking his sons to AusKick and he is a member of Plenty Valley FM, the St Kilda Football Club and the South Sydney Rabbitohs.

Introduction

Richard Owen

ExxonMobil Australia Chairman, ExxonMobil

Richard J Owen joined Esso Australia in 1983 and began work at the Longford Plants. Following a number of engineering, operational and management assignments in Sale, Sydney and Melbourne, Mr Owen moved to New Orleans, USA and was appointed as Operations Manager in 2001.

about CEDA

CEDA is a respected independent national organisation with an engaged cross-sector membership. More than 750 of Australia's leading businesses, organisations and academic institutions from around the country are members of CEDA. For more than 50 years, CEDA has delivered informed discourse and rigorous research to influence good public policy for Australia's economic and social development.

Membership

Organisations join CEDA because CEDA delivers exposure to high level thought leadership, timely briefings on issues of economic importance, access to networking and brand reach through sponsorship and hosting opportunities. In addition to high profile public events, CEDA also delivers regular member only events for employees of member organisations and exclusive Trustee only boardroom briefings for senior executives from member organisations. These provide a unique opportunity for peer-to-peer knowledge exchange and for speakers and attendees to talk candidly on issues.

Research and policy

CEDA's only agenda is to pursue good public policy to progress Australia's economic and social development. Since 1960 CEDA has produced more than 3000 publications, research reports and articles highlighting emerging issues and directions in a diverse range of policy areas. Research in 2018 will focus on inequality; community attitudes to economic growth and development; and a major review of the purpose of economic growth and development in Australia.
